3. Details

Our ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING policies and procedures identify the true identity of customer and beneficial owner of funds and transactions. We have employed a customer identification program that is designed to obtain and verify information regarding our customers' true identity, source of wealth, economic activity and the nature of anticipated transactional activity. Suspicious transactions will be reported to the relating authorities based on our monitoring system that is designed to facilitate the identification of suspicious transactional activity. We provide anti-money laundering training on a periodic basis to our staff which educates our employees in the ways of preventing money laundering transactions and assists them in identifying suspicious activities. Audit and compliance review functions test the adequacy of our anti-money laundering procedures and policies.
